
IM group - Refrigeration

IM is the back office for additional design and knowledge for the refrigeration systems and experience in Industrial and commercial refrigeration.

The company was established in 1979 as designer, contractor and manufacturer of Marine, Industrial and commercial refrigeration systems.

Today the IM group consist of 6 departments in Denmark, with total 60 employees.

IM International headquarters is situated in Copenhagen, and provides industrial and marine refrigeration systems, control systems, equipment and services throughout the world.

IM International Refrigeration designs, installs and maintains custom-built refrigeration plants for a wide range of applications in the food industry. Whether it is a multi-temperature store for a variety of different products or freezing tunnels for fruit and vegetables, the IM group has the experience and expertise.

IM International has the co-operation of other members of the IM group enabling it to provide a variety of refrigeration systems for food processing and food production plants.

The IM group design and deliver refrigeration systems for a wide range of industries such as:

- Refrigeration plants for the food industries:
 - Fruit and vegetables
 - Meat
 - Milk products
 - Beverage
- Refrigeration plants for mobile skating rinks.
- Refrigeration plants for stationary skating rinks.
- Refrigeration plants for the pharmaceutical industries.
- Refrigeration plants for ventilation and air conditioning.
- Marine refrigeration plants.
- Heat pumps.

The IM Group has a reference list for delivery of refrigeration plants during the last years in countries all over the world – Denmark, Norway, Sweden, Germany, Poland, Slovakia, Hungary, Bulgaria, Ukraine, Austria, Turkey, Moldova, Russia, Syria, Libya, Seychelles, Bangladesh, Madagascar, and Kazakhstan.

The IM group is agent for the companies CARRIER

And DAIKIN in Denmark

